Jill A. Frackepohl Jordan

1975 -- 2014

Jill Andrea Jordan of Morristown, New Jersey, passed away peacefully at home on June 7, 2014, at the age of 38.

Born Jill A. Franckenpohl on September 30, 1975, she grew up in Denville, New Jersey. She received a BS in mathematical sciences from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, which is where she met and fell in love with her husband. Jordan had a distinguished career in the insurance industry, the last 10 years spent at Crum & Forster where she was an assistant vice president and actuary. She became an Associate of the Casualty Actuarial Society in 2008 and was a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries.

She will be remembered as a loving and caring person who always put her family first. She was beautiful, clever, kind, funny, and smart. A meticulous planner and list maker, Jill Jordan was the go-to person for ideas about home remodeling, weddings and vacation planning. She enjoyed traveling with her family, particularly to Duck in North Carolina's Outer Banks and to Walt Disney World.

Jordan was happiest when she was doing special things for her four children. A den mother for her son's Cub Scout Pack, she loved to plan family camp outs in their backyard. She reveled in planning birthday parties for her children, creating memorable holidays and summer vacations and decorating their home with countless pictures of their smiling faces.

She is survived by her husband, Edgar Jordan III; children Edgar IV (Eddie), Cole, Tate and Carina; parents Herb and Judy Frackepohl of Morristown; sisters, Patti (Brandon)

Borzelli of Lebanon, Caroline (Kevin) Borecki of Denville, and Jennie Mathiasmeier of Morristown; and several nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.
